

Employment Opportunity: Summer Day Camp Worker

Wahbung Abinoonjiiag is a domestic violence prevention, crisis and healing center, established in 1994 to empower children and their families to end the cycle of violence. Wahbung Abinoonjiiag "Children of Tomorrow" is an Indigenous organization, providing opportunities for holistic healing through culturally-relevant teachings, programs, advocacy and counselling.

Background:

Wahbung Abinoonjiiag will provide summer day camp programming for children and youth who have been impacted by family violence, creating lasting positive memories, holistic well-being for the family unit and opportunities for kids to be kids. The Summer Day Camp Worker(s) are responsible for delivering participant-centered, culturally safe and age-appropriate summer day camp programming for children and youth, which will improve their holistic well-being, foster resiliency and opportunities to thrive. The Summer Day Camp Worker(s) will report directly to the Children and Youth Program Coordinator, with guidance from the Manager of Programs and Administration, and Executive Director.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Assist in planning and implementing summer day camp programming for children in-person and/or virtually (as needed);
- Provide culturally-relevant land-based opportunities for learning and healing;
- Work cooperatively with team members, volunteers, staff and partners;
- Foster an environment that promotes and protects the health, security and well-being of children and youth;
- Self-motivated, able to work without direct supervision and meet deadlines;
- Track daily program statistics, prepare reports and attend program meetings as needed;
- Advertise summer programming with partner organizations and via social media;
- Actively ensure that organizational COVID-19 safety protocols and public health measures are adhered to at all times; and,
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Be youth aged 15 to 29, living in Manitoba and legally entitled to work in Canada;
- Have a valid Social Insurance Number and have a Young Worker Readiness Certificate (if 15 years of age);
- Experience working with and/or facilitating programming for children, youth, and families;
- Experience working in inner city, Indigenous communities in a not-for-profit setting;
- Patient, non-judgmental and welcoming with demonstrated capacity to effectively support and build positive relationships with community members facing multiple barriers;
- Critical thinking, decision-making, problem-solving and conflict resolution skills;
- Knowledge and understanding of Indigenous culture and traditions and the impact of

Wahbung Abinoonjiiag Inc. | Children of Tomorrow

Address: 225 Dufferin Avenue | Winnipeg, MB | R2W 5N7

Phone: (204) 925-4610 | Fax: (204) 582-9508 | Email: info@wahbung.org

Website: www.wahbung.org | Social Media: @wahbung225

colonization on the health and well-being of Indigenous children, youth and families;

- Demonstrated ability to provide peer leadership;
- Strong verbal and written communication skills;
- Confident facilitating online programming;
- Ability to be flexible and pivot programming between virtual and in-person, as per public health regulations;
- Excellent organizational and time management skills;
- Maintain the integrity, philosophy and values of the organization; and,
- Valid driver's license and access to a reliable vehicle will be considered an asset

Salary Range:

Contingent on experience/qualifications

Hours of Work:

Multiple Full-Time Summer Term Positions (June 19, 2023 to September 8, 2023); 37.5 hours per week; Monday to Friday; must be available days and evenings.

Deadline to Apply:

Monday, June 6, 2023 at 4:00 p.m.

Please send your resume and cover letter (clearly identifying which position title you are apply for) to:

Wahbung Abinoonjiiag Inc.
Attention: Selection Committee
Mail: 225 Dufferin Avenue Winnipeg, MB R2W 5N7
Email: hrwahbung@gmail.com

Preference will be given to individuals that self-identify as Indigenous. The successful candidate will be subject to provide a current criminal record and child abuse registry check. Wahbung Abinoonjiiag Inc. would like to thank all applicants for their interest; only those selected for an interview will be contacted.